Japan Report

During the period JEI published three issues of Japan Report which analyzes commercial developments in the Japanese, the American and third-country markets. This is written in Washington from Japanese-language sources (e.g., trade journals, newspapers, and the like.) (Numbers 139 - 141).

2. Publications

Yearbook of U.S.-Japan Economic Relations (1979)

JEI continued to distribute copies of the 1979 edition of the Yearbook of U.S.-Japan Economic Relations upon request.

Year of U.S.-Japan Economic Relations in 1980

This publication, which is being prepared under the direction of Dr. Edward Lincoln, will provide an account of events affecting U.S.-Japan economic relations during calendar year 1980. The reference book, containing both economic analysis and data, is being compiled and printed, and nationwide distribution to government officials, business executives, academic institutions and libraries is expected to begin in early July.

Japan's Expanding Manufacturing Presence in the United States: A Profile

This booklet by Susan MacKnight of JEI was originally published as a JEI Report. To accomodate requests for the report, JEI printed 800 copies. These were distributed free of charge to journalists and newspapers, and are available for purchase by interested parties.

AMENDMENT

January 1, 1981

The Embassy of Japan, 2520 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (hereinafter referred to as the "Embassy") and the JAPAN ECONOMIC INSTITUTE of America, 1000 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (hereinafter referred to as the "JEI") hereby agree as follows:

1. Paragraph 1 of the contract signed between the Embassy and the United States-Japan Trade Council (former name of the JEI prior to January 1, 1981) on April 1, 1980, is amended as stated below:

"During the Japanese fiscal year 1980, the Embassy, in order to promote friendly economic relations between Japan and the United States and to encourage the expansion of trade between the two countries, will provide the Council with financial assistance to the extent required, within the overall limitation of U.S. $658,528.00, to further actively these purposes. In return the Council, during the said fiscal year, will carry forward the activities enumerated in Paragraph 3."

2. The reduction in amount of financial assistance caused by this amendment will come mainly from those projected expenditures to carry out activities (1), (2) and (6) enumerated in Paragraph 3 of the original contract of April 1, 1980.

3. This amendment shall come into force as of the first day of January, 1981.

In witness of the above agreement, Mr. Takehiro Togo, representing the Embassy, and Mr. Robert C. Angel, for the JEI, have signed hereunder.

February 1, 1981

The Embassy of Japan, 2520 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (hereinafter referred to as the "Embassy") and the Japan Economic Institute of America, 1000 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (hereinafter referred to as the "JEI")- hereby agree and contract as follows:

1. During the month of February and March 1981, the Embassy in order to promote friendly economic relations between Japan and the United States and to encourage the expansion of trade between the two countries, will provide the JEI with financial assistance to the extent required, within the overall limitation of U.S. $27,000.00 to further actively these purposes. In return, the JEI, during the said period, will carry forward the activities enumerated in Paragraph 3.

2. The Embassy will supply the funds to the JEI at the latter's request.

3. The JEI accepts the responsibility of advancing the purpose set forth in Paragraph 1 by faithfully and efficiently providing the following services:

- (1) Public information measures to disseminate throughout the United States information on the economic and trade problems of Japan and the United States.

(2) Reports upon activities of the United States Congress and the Executive agencies which may in any way affect United States-Japan trade.

(3) Economic and statistical research on selected problems of significance to the trade between the two countries.

4. After the termination of the period covered by this contract (March 31, 1981), the JEI will render an accounting for all funds received hereunder and, if any balance remains, it shall be returned immediately to the Embassy.

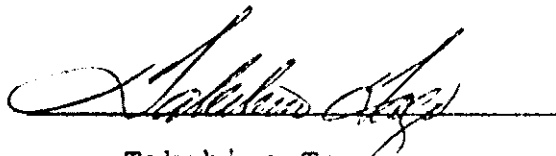

5. If at any time the JEI fails conscientiously to provide the services enumerated in Paragraph 3 or expends the funds received for purposes other than those contemplated by this contract, the Embassy may decrease or suspend the further supply of funds and shall be entitled to the return of any funds not applied in good faith to further the purposes of this contract.

6. Qualified representatives of the Embassy may, whenever necessary and at any time, inspect the JEI activities in pursuance of this contract and the accounting records of the JEI dealing with expenditures undertaken hereunder.

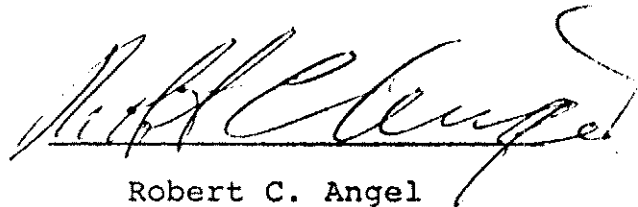

7. Conflicts which may arise concerning the interpretation of the terms of this contract or matters thereto shall be resolved by agreement between the Embassy Counselor whose signature appears below and the President of the JEI whose signature is also affixed hereto.

8. This contract shall come into force retroactively as of the first day of February 1981. .-

In witness of the above agreement, Mr. Takehiro Togo, representing the Embassy of Japan, and Mr. Robert C. Angel, for the Japan Economic Institute of America, have signed hereunder.
